Dear Sir,

Subject: Letter of Appreciation

Haldia Petrochemicals Limited (HPL) is one of the largest petrochemical companies in India and committed to total customer satisfaction; by delivering quality products and services through continuous improvement of knowledge, skills, processes and involvement of all business associates.

Being a part of continual improvement process, vendors working with HPL need to be evaluated for their performance. Accordingly, we sorted out our most important business associates for the purpose of evaluation and your company is one of them. We are glad to announce here that you have been rated as "Excellent" based on your performance for the period 01.04.2022 to 31.03.2023.

We expect you to maintain this trend and also hope that you will put your best efforts for further improvement in your performance.

Thanking you and looking forward to a fruitful and healthy business relationship between your company and Haldia Petrochemicals Limited in years to come.

Very truly yours

For Haldia Petrochemicals Limited
